

ONE SNOWFLAKE, ONE MAN
by Pastor Jim Bornzin

One snowflake
Tumbles slowly
From the sky
Carrying in its unique
And intricate architecture
All the infinite care
Of God in heaven
To the earth below.

A design so beautiful
And fleeting, that
Only an inspired artist
Could create such
A delicate sculpture in ice.

One snowflake
Falls upon the earth
Still warm
From the long hours
Of summer sun
That now gives
But a few hours of light
To a chilling world.
In a moment
It disappears, and
One tiny droplet of water
Slides down a blade of grass
And is gone, but not lost.

One snowflake
Adds its moisture
To millions of others
Giving life
A new beginning
When the warm spring sun
Once again comes to thaw
The frozen earth.

One man
Came humbly
Into this world
Carrying in his unique
And loving person
All the infinite care
Of God in heaven
To the earth below.

A man so concerned
And so kind, that
Other men
Could not believe
He was real.

One man
Came with light
And warmth in his soul
To thaw the frozen hearts of those
Who in jealousy, hatred, and fear
Crucified the One
Who only came to love them.

In a moment
He was gone
But not lost.
God lifted him back into heaven
To show the world it was forgiven.

One man
Gave his life
For millions of others
So life might be given
A new beginning
When the Holy Spirit
Once again kindles faith
In the Savior, Jesus the Lord.
